ndia's indigenous payment network RuPay has cornered a significant market share in the domestic card market since its launch. As of November 30, 2020, RuPay's market share has increased to more than 60 per cent of total cards issued, from merely 17-per cent market share in 2017, revealed the data released by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) in its booklet on Payment Systems in India (2010-20).

As of November 2020, around 603.6-million RuPay cards have been issued by nearly 1,158 banks. But a majority of these are debit cards and only 970,000 are credit cards. However, experts have cautioned that this statistic must not be looked at in isolation.

Experts pointed out that one of the reasons behind gaining such market share could be the fact that a significant portion of RuPay cards are issued to accounts opened under the Pradhan Mantri Jan-Dhan 13, 2021, more than 306-million RuPav cards have been issued to 416.5 million accounts opened under PMJDY.

"What needs to be checked are the value and volume of transactions," said experts.

Interestingly, the number of debit cards issued in the country between 2010-11 and 2019-20 increased from 227.8 million to 828.6 million, of which around 300 million were RuPay debit cards issued to basic savings bank deposit (BSBD) account holders.

On the other hand, during back. RuPay has its popular option to customers.

Yojana (PMJDY). As of January the same period, the number of credit cards issued also increased from 18 million to 57.7 million. The increase in cards has facilitated growth in both online and physical point-of-sale (PoS) terminal-based card payments, resulting in an increase in digital transactions. "The drive for a less-cash economy in the wake of demonetisation in 2016 and the issue of RuPay cards for BSBD accounts has increased user acceptance in the interiors of the country where paying with a card was a novelty five years cards and provide it as the first accepted credit version as well," the RBI said.

'We need to understand that cards issued is one statistic, but cards active is also an important aspect of it. Essentially, if we look at RuPay debit cards, the merchant discount rate is zero. So there is no revenue for banks or the issuers. Also, the value of transactions for debit cards is lower than credit cards. And, in credit cards, Visa and Mastercard are at the top. In fact, the value of total credit card transactions in PoS system is much higher than the value ofa11 debit card transactions at PoS," said Mihir Gandhi, partner, leader-PwC India.

RuPay, operated by the National Payments Corporation of India, is India's home-grown card network. It competes against global peers, such as Visa and Mastercard, in the Indian market. The government has also been pushing banks to focus more on RuPay Policy on PSU privatisation...

Many discussions were held between a group of ministries that have carved and shaped the policy, the official added.

According to the initial draft of the policy floated by the Department of Investment Public Asset Management, around 18 sectors were classified as strategic sectors, including power, fertilisers, telecom, defence, banking, and insurance. These have been categorised mining and exploration, manufacturing and processing, and services.

Tax worries roil indices...

"It had been a great run. And a pullback was due. The results have been good, but unlike the last quarter, the market this time is not rewarding you at the moment. In the previous quarter, when the results were good, share prices moved. This time, we have not seen that kind of upgrade we saw last time." said Andrew Holland, CEO. Avendus Capital Alternate Strategies.

Many emerging markets, including India, had climbed to record levels this month amid optimism around US stimulus. Fears of a delay in the $1.9-trillion relief package, announced by US President Joe Biden, is weighing on global investor sentiment, said experts.

Also, new coronavirus variants that led to fresh lockdowns have dampened investor mood. Market participants are betting on a gradual withdrawal of restrictions. "And globally, there are worries around vaccine rollout and Amazon under ED lens...

"Or contravening any rule, regulations, notification, direction or order issued in exercise of the powers under FEMA...." said the official.

"We have studied the Delhi High Court recent order in the Future Retail case, where the court pointed at the agreement between Future and Amazon's Indian arm, which is contrary to the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA) and FDI rules," the official said.

The Delhi High Court in December had made several observations in its order with respect to Jeff Bezos-led company's 2019 investment in Future Coupons Pvt Ltd (Future Retail's parent).

Farmers call off march to Parliament...

The violence left as many as 349 policemen injured, offi-

During a press conference, Delhi police chief S N Shrivastava said: "We held five rounds of meetings with farmer leaders before the tractor rally... Farmer leaders have betrayed us -- they did not follow conditions set for the tractor parade."

It analysed the clauses of Darshan Pal gave inflammatory speeches after which protesters broke through bar-

Countering the allegation, Pal dubbed the violence a "government conspiracy". Farmer leader Shivkumar

Kakka said: "We've video clips and will expose how the conspiracy was hatched to defame our movement."

Tikait said an FIR against any farmer leader is an FIR against farmers of the country. Yadav, a Swarai India leader, however, said: "We regret the Red Fort incident and accept moral responsibility.' ment violative of the FEMA

Union Culture Tourism Minister Prahlad Patel visited Red Fort to assess the damage caused by a section of farmers who stormed the monument and hoisted Nishan Sahib, the Sikh religious flag, after deviating from the rally route. The minister has sought a report on the incident. The government maintained that it was open to further talks with protesting farmers. Union Information and Broadcasting Minister Prakash Javdekar said: "We have never said that the doors for dialogue are closed.'

MoS Agriculture Kailash Chaudhury said those political organisations which have been rejected by the electorate are trying to come into prominence through the protest. The Delhi Metro authorities shut the Lal Quila station and restricted entry to the Jama Masiid station. Congress leader Rahul

Gandhi appealed to the Narendra Modi government to repeal, what he claimed were, "anti-agriculture" laws.

In Haryana, Indian National Lok Dal leader Abhay Singh Chautala tendered his resignation from the Assembly against the laws and the Speaker accepted it. While criticising violence and distancing itself from "leaderless and violent", RSSaffiliated Bharatiya Kisan Sangh demanded amendments to the farm laws and legal guarantee on minimum support price.

The Samyukt Kisan Morcha (SKM) alleged "antisocial" elements, like actor Deep Sidhu, attempted to "torpedo" their peaceful agitation under a conspiracy, but asserted they won't allow "the government and other forces He alleged farmer leaders inimical to the peaceful movelike Satnam Singh Pannu and ment to break this struggle".
